

WHAT IS PLMW?

The Programming Languages Mentoring Workshop is an event for folks interested in programming languages (PL) to learn about research, graduate school, meet others with similar interests, and attend mentoring sessions.

Attend events from NZ or virtually

WHAT IS SPLASH?

PLMW@SPLASH is located at the SPLASH conference, which hosts events, talks, and publications about what is new in PL and software engineering. PLMW attendees have full access to the conference!

WHY MIGHT YOU WANT TO ATTEND PLMW?

- You think programming languages are interesting!
- You want to know:
  - ◆ What is it like to attend an academic conference?
  - ◆ What is the difference between a Masters & PhD in PL?
  - ◆ What job opportunities are available?
- You want to meet other people (students, researchers, etc.) who are also interested in PL!

There is a short application to fill out

Limited funding is available!

IS PLMW FOR YOU?

PLMW is aimed at folks who are late-stage undergraduates, Masters, or PhD students and also those who are first-time conference attendees. Regardless, if you're interested in PLMW: please apply!

PLMW@SPLASH 2022 specifically welcomes applications from members of underrepresented groups in computing.
